

Dr. Moore

Dr. Moore was born in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and grew up in Barbados. Being an only child, her companions were always four-legged and furry. She knew from a young age that she wanted to become a veterinarian. Growing up, she would volunteer at the RSPCA in Barbados, and during her studies in New York, she volunteered at various shelters in the area.

Dr. Moore obtained her Associate's in Veterinary Technology at SUNY Canton, and later graduated with a Bachelor's in Animal Science at SUNY Cobleskill, both located in upstate New York. She then earned her doctorate of veterinary medicine (D.V.M.) from Ross University in St. Kitts. She completed her clinical studies at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge before migrating to Las Vegas. Exotics, pathology, mentorship, and surgery are some of her areas of interest.

Since joining the Lone Mountain team, Dr. Moore has assumed the position of Recruitment Director. She extends her love for education and mentorship by participating in veterinary community outreach within the Las Vegas area. In her free time, Dr. Moore is a Harry Potter fanatic, enjoys cooking, traveling, fitness, and spending time with her family. She shares her life with her fiancé, a Skinny Pig named Minerva, and a Shih Tzu mix named Fleur that she adopted from Lone Mountain Animal Hospital.
